this general history based on archival and monographic sources some of which were not available to earlier writers is designed to be a balanced and comprehensive synthesis seldom does a historian come upon a richer mix of colorful personalities dramatic action byzantine intrigue and momentous historical issues the impact of americans on china during the war was enormous much of u s activity in china because of inadequate knowledge of china s culture government and military capabilities was harmful to china and chiang s regime moreover u s efforts to induce chiang to make reforms designed to improve his regime s war effort and chances for post war survival were ineffective the sulfurous american general joseph stilwell assigned to serve as chiang s chief of staff underestimating the fighting ability of the japanese and disregarding chiang s advice followed a strategy in the first burma campaign that contributed to the loss of chiang s best divisions and the chance of holding north burma stilwell s obsessive demand for a new burma campaign involved him in bitter controversies with chiang the british and u s air commander claire chennault when the british demanded that stilwell be removed from burma he with roosevelt s support demanded that chiang turn over to him the command of china s armed forces which was equivalent to control of china but americans could not enforce this demand on chiang who expelled stilwell from china ambassador patrick hurley then attempted to arrange a coalition government between chiang and the communists a proposal chiang rejected at roosevelt s insistence chiang allowed america to send u s personnel the dixie mission to the communist headquarters at yennan mao tse tung convinced foreign service officer john service and others that he sought a cooperative relationship with america in order among other reasons to reduce his dependence on russia before stilwell s dismissal americans had decided to arm the communists but the removal of stilwell defeated that purpose and u s aid continued to go exclusively to chiang it appeared that the ideological preferences of americans brought about a postponement of cooperation with the ultimately victorious chinese communists despite an eventual common interest in keeping soviet influence in east asia in check this comprehensive study is illustrated and includes a chronology glossary bibliography and index book jacket title summary field provided by blackwell north america inc all rights reserved
